The Sin List

Boldly dealing with sin so God can use you to impact your world.

by Keith Cook
Dedication

This edition is dedicated to my friend, David Brandon, who has followed Christ with all his heart. I am so thankful God has allowed us to go down many roads together.

In Appreciation

To the hundreds of volunteers and short term outreach participants who work with us each year - thank you GoTeam Members. You have challenged me to keep up the good fight of faith. Thanks also to my wife, Joan, who lives out the principles in this book better than anyone I have ever known.

No temptation has seized you except what is common to man. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear.

But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can stand up under it.

I Corinthians 10:13
A Personal Word

Years ago, when I was just getting started in the ministry, God used two rather humiliating situations to teach me life changing principles concerning prayer. One had to deal with individual responsibility for sin and the other about a minister’s responsibility concerning missing the mark (sin).

Let’s look at the first situation. Growing up in a small town had many benefits for young men and boys. You could find jobs during the summer and usually you could work with friends and have a great time doing so!

Right after my conversion to Christianity I was considered quite a fanatic. I literally dove into my new found faith with my whole personality. God quickly taught me the error of judging and of personal sin. It was a very painful lesson.

One day while working with my best friend out in the fields I got on a religious roll. I was witnessing rather hard to my friend and he was being very uncharacteristically quiet. I was saying things like, “You need to get saved because you are a big sinner. If you ever walked into our church the steeple would probably fall in.” I was picking and having fun at my friends expense.
I had just gotten to the end of a row of tobacco that we both were hoeing and I raised up to examine our progress. With peripheral vision I saw my friend’s hoe sailing toward my head. I quickly ducked and ran toward my friend who was steaming mad. He pointed his sweaty finger at me and loudly yelled, “Keith Cook, how dare you tell me I am a big sinner when you have just this last week ......” He then proceeded to list in rather graphic detail every sin that I had committed in his presence. It was a rather sad day for me.

That night I tossed and turned in bed. I wrestled with God and my conscience. When I woke up the next morning the Lord had taught me a valuable lesson about how my sin had caused my friend to reject His message. I was the reason my best friend would not come to Christ.

That day I vowed that if God would forgive me and give me another chance, I would, with His help, avoid, flee and forsake all the sins He would reveal to me.

Lesson one was hard, but lesson two was even more revealing to me.

Almost nine years later God again wanted me to learn firsthand about how He views sin and it’s real seriousness.

Being an avid reader and connoisseur of books had brought many wonderful people into my life. As a young preacher I was brash enough to read a book by an author and then, if inspired by their work, call or write them. I traveled quite extensively and spent many hours on the phone conversing with authors. It was great. I learned a great deal about “real” ministers and an awful lot about just “plain” writers.

One of the most profound books I had read up to that time was a book by Miss Bertha Smith on her life in China as a missionary. Miss Bertha had served the Lord for many years in China before communism took over. She was literally driven out of the country when Christianity was outlawed. Her stories of faith and God’s providence really moved me.

After reading the book I called her and we became friends over the telephone. She invited me and my crusade director to come and visit her. We both were so excited but we also were scared to go. You see, we had found out from some other preachers that Miss Bertha was rather unique. She could discern things about you and was bold enough to tell you what she thought about almost any subject!

The drive over to South Carolina was very nerve wracking for David and me. We both had visions of her exposing all our sins to everyone. When we arrived she was so kind. She had arranged for us to stay at her prayer center in special accommodations. We also were invited to come over to her house the next morning for breakfast. At ninety years of age she was going to fix breakfast for us.

David and I were so excited. The next morning we were up early and quickly walked over to Miss Bertha’s house. We were so hungry and we had visions of a big country breakfast. As we rounded the corner of the house Miss Bertha met us, and I will never forget her words to me. She said in a rather chipper tone, “Good morning Brother Cook! Have you confessed all your sins up to date?”

I was floored! I said, “Ma'am?” She repeated her question. I said rather sleepily, “Well, I don't know.”

She then responded, “Don't you think a man who speaks for God and who is going to change the world for Christ should know all known sin is confessed and out of his life?” With my head bowed I replied, “Yes ma'am.”

She then proceeded to hand me a piece of carpet about two feet by two feet. She told me to go to the prayer garden and not to come to breakfast until all my known and to be revealed sins were dealt with. She pointed to the prayer garden and off I walked. I was hot and mad and embarrassed. I heard a noise and behind me came a similarly embarrassed David.

We both picked out benches and sat down. I yelled (quietly) to David, “I can't believe this! What are we suppose to do?” He replied, “I guess we have to pray or we won't get to eat!” I then said something like, “You know I can't lie to her and say I'm prayed up when I'm not. This could take days!”

Finally we both got down to praying. Each of us searched out the farthest spots apart from each other because we knew our sin lists were long and we didn’t want the other to witness the coming ordeal.

As I sat there praying I wondered what the carpet square was for. Once my mind and heart got serious with God, I quickly understood why Miss Bertha had given me the carpet. It became my prayer rug. My sitting became kneeling and soon I was on my face on the ground pouring out my soul to my Father in Heaven.

It seemed like I was there for hours. God and I had such a time. He revealed sins and I cried like a baby. He then comforted me and I joyfully squealed with inner delight and peace. That day God drove home to me Miss Bertha’s words, “Don’t you think a man who speaks for God and who is going to change the world for Christ should know all known sin is confessed and out of his life?”

Later that morning both David and I ate and had fellowship with Miss Bertha in her home. She became our mentor in prayer and faith. I also received the vision for this series on “The Sin List”. I have shared this message and call to holiness with thousands of young people and adults worldwide.

Are you willing and ready to deal with the sin and problems facing you? If so, continue on with the next chapter. May God lead you as you go deeper into His will for your life.
In getting ready to serve God we must deal with our number one enemy, sin! Before going out to minister in the field as a mighty warrior, we must have a clean heart and a right mind.

The Bible says, "All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." Most of us just take it for granted that sinning is a necessary evil that we have no power or control over.

Yet God's Word also teaches that "True Christians" cannot be mastered by sin. Believers are equipped with a special weapon in their war with sin, the Spirit of God living inside them.

The Holy Spirit helps you by:

- convicting of sin, comforting in sorrow, calling to salvation and controlling you for service.
Every time a Christian sins they break fellowship with God and that results in:

- loss of power to serve God and to defeat Satan's attacks
- loss of intimacy and joy of fellowship with Christ
- prayers not being answered
- valuable time being wasted wandering in the ways of the world

As you prepare to go minister, and all of us are to be ministering with our lives, it is important to remember that what you are attempting is holy work. It takes holy hands, a holy heart and a holy mind. A mission project requires spiritual stamina and so does serving God right here at home. You must be filled to the overflow with Jesus, not sin.

If you lose spiritual power because of sin, not only do you hurt yourself and your team, you also hurt the potential of the entire project. Sin in the camp can bring down the entire project.

In the past I have seen team members battle pride while on a project, and it nearly brought the entire team's spirit down. It is so easy to have happen. One gets to preach or sing and the other may sit there comparing or judging. This sin hides in your heart and bitterness comes out in your attitude. Then, open complaining comes out of your mouth. Rebellion and other outward manifestations are soon to follow.
Yet, if team members deal with their sin before the trip, and they arrive with a clean heart and a pure mind, then any sin or wrong attitude will quickly be recognized by the individual and forsaken.

What should you do if you have sinned and missed God's best for your life? Is it all over for you? Do you lose all hope forever of having a wonderful relationship with God? Let's look in the Bible. The Bible says:

“He that covers his sins shall not prosper: but whoever confesses and forsakes them shall have mercy.” Proverbs 28:13

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all our unrighteousness.” 1 John 1:9

This book should help liberate you from past sins and problems that have held you back. I have not written this to put you under bondage or to be "Hyper Legalistic". The freedom we have in Christ is fantastic when we have a "Clean Heart" and a "Clean Conscience."
How to Use the “SIN LIST”

1. Go through the following lists of sins and ask God to show you general areas of unconfessed sin. Check the box and move on to the next area.

2. After you have gone through the entire list, come back and write out the specific sins you have committed and not confessed and forsaken.

(I recommend using a separate sheet of paper that can be thrown away or even burned. Most sin lists do not need to be examined by other people or found lying around one’s room.)
Once you have done this, take each offense to God in prayer. Be open and deal with all known sin! Check your list. Make sure you deal with each specific sin. Do not say, "God knows all of this already. God forgive ALL my sins." Pray and talk to God about each offense.

You may need to ask someone to forgive you or make restitution (pay back or make right) for a sin that you have committed.

NOTE Most misdeeds are against God and can be settled just between you and Him. These confessions need not always be made public. Sometimes sharing one’s sins in public causes more harm than good. Be wise and ask the Lord to guide you!

Remember that God desires that you confess and forsake these sins. HE WILL FORGIVE! He will give you strength! He will help you turn from your sin! Go and sin no more! If you find yourself continually practicing the same sins, you have not forsaken them.

The Bible says: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me!" You really can!
Victory in the Spirit

Right now you may be asking yourself if this is really worth all the effort and thought? Can prayer and being holy before God make any difference in my life? Let’s let the Bible speak. As you read each passage, meditate on it and let the Spirit of God show you valuable insights into real victory over sin.

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. “All this I will give you,” he said, “if you will bow down and worship me.” Jesus said to him, “Away from me, Satan! For it is written: ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.’” Then the devil left him, and angels came and attended him. Matthew 4:8-11

Tricks the Devil uses when you pray!*

1. Makes you feel sleepy
2. Makes your mind wander
3. Makes you think:  • What is the use
   • God’s not listening
   • God knows already
4. Accuses you:
   • Of being selfish
   • That it’s not God’s will
   • Of not being good enough

What God does when you Pray! “Lord teach us to pray”
Luke 11:1

1. He hears your prayer
2. He cares for you
3. He forgives your sin
4. He restores your strength
5. He gives you hope
6. He tells your heart and mind what to do
7. He gives you faith to trust Him
8. He calms your fears
9. He gives you peace to wait on Him
10. He answers your prayer

Possible Answers “Pray without ceasing” I Thes. 5:17

• Yes - you have what you desire
• No - this is not in my plan
• Wait - till I show you the way
• Listen - to my new direction

HEART SINS

"Create in me a clean heart,
O God, and renew
a steadfast spirit within me."
Psalms 51:10

[ ] Selfishness - being motivated to help self first and foremost instead of seeking to help others or contribute to the “team concept”; living self-centered; having a bad attitude when things don’t go your way (Philippians 2:3 NIV)

[ ] Impatience - wanting to do and accomplish things in your own time period and not waiting on God or others (James 1:4 NIV)

[ ] Jealousy/Covetousness - to desire or want something or someone that belongs to someone else; not being content with what you have, but wanting more; comparing yourself to others instead of to Christ Himself (Exodus 20:17 NAS)

[ ] Unforgiveness/Bitterness - refusing to reconcile or “make up” with someone that you have had a disagreement with; to hold in angry or resentful feelings and emotions instead of seeking to make peace and restitution; refusal to forgive others (Mark 11:25 NAS)
[ ] Discouragement To Self & Others - quenching the Spirit in your life and in the people around you; thinking from a negative, worldly perspective instead of a positive, hopeful one; not having the mind of Christ (Numbers 32:7-10 NIV)

[ ] No World-Wide Vision - not seeing or stepping outside your own world to minister to those whom you have never seen; not seeing things from God’s perspective (Proverbs 29:18 KJV)
HEART SINS

Getting Specific: List each offense not yet confessed and forsaken; pray and ask forgiveness and direction from God.

NEGLIGENCE

"And do not neglect doing good and sharing; for with such sacrifices God is pleased."

Hebrews 13:16

[ ] Study - to be unprepared or equipped for work or school; to be unprepared to defend or present the Gospel (2 Timothy 2:15 NAS)

[ ] Prayer - to fail to spend time with God; neglecting your relationship with God (1 Thessalonians 5:17 KJV)

[ ] Soul Winning- remaining silent about the Gospel; allowing fear and doubt to prevent you from being a witness; not caring if people go to hell (Jeremiah 20:9 NIV)

[ ] Church- not going to a corporate worship time and Bible study with other believers; not participating in “Body Life” (Hebrews 10:25 NAS)

[ ] Others - ignoring the needs and hurts of other people, whether lost or saved; complacency about hurting or needy people (Hebrews 13:2 NIV)
SINS OF NEGLECT

Getting Specific: List each offense not yet confessed and forsaken; pray and ask forgiveness and direction from God.

"He that covers his sins shall not prosper: but whoever confesses and forsakes them shall have mercy.” Proverbs 28:13

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all our unrighteousness.” 1 John 1:9
LOVE SINS

"which is the greatest commandment...? ..You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind....the second is.. You shall love your neighbor as yourself.”
Matthew 22:36-39

[ ] Lack Of Love For Others - not being willing to serve or help others; refusal to reconcile; not putting others before yourself; not putting God before yourself; living selfishly; being more concerned with things and possessions than with people (Leviticus 19:18 NIV)

[ ] Lack Of Love For God - seeking to serve self first; to live your life without the lordship of God in your life; sinning with no sense of grief or repentance; ignoring God’s prompting and will in your life; seeking to please others instead of God; not obeying the commands and instruction given to us in the Bible (Deuteronomy 6:5 NIV)

[ ] Love Of Money/Materialism - to place greater worth and value on objects and possessions than on people or the Lord; to neglect the living for the dead and unimportant; seeking social acceptance instead of being a steward of what God has given you; hoarding God’s money; focusing on the temporary things of the world instead of eternal; caring more about gaining possessions than relationships with other people (1 John 3:17 NKJV)
Pride/Judging - considering yourself to be better or of more worth than others; having an arrogant attitude about who you are or the things you possess; thinking you are above sin and not effected by temptation and sin; looking down on others because of the evil in their life while ignoring the evil in your own life (Proverbs 16:18 KJV)

Racism - to discriminate against someone based on their ethnic background; to fear or dislike people because they are not like you (different - because of cultural issues and customs); to negatively judge people and to categorize people and not see them in a Christ-like way (1 John 2:10-11; Matthew 22:37-39)

Prejudice - to have a negative attitude toward someone that is unfounded; to have preconceived ideas and judgments about a person or a group of people before you know them; (1 John 3:10,14)

Bigotry - to be judgmental against all other groups besides your own; to be fanatically involved in one’s own race, religion, political party, etc. (1 John 4:7-8,12,19-20)
LOVE SINS

Getting Specific: List each offense not yet confessed and forsaken; pray and ask forgiveness and direction from God.

SINS OF HABIT

"Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, let your mind dwell on these things."

Philippians 4:8

[ ] TV/Movies - being consumed or addicted to seeing and watching sinful events and actions that are not Christ-like; to dull the conscience by continually opening yourself up to seeing ungodly actions; allowing yourself to see bad influences that could eventually become active habits in your life; to desensitize yourself to sin. (Matthew 6:22 NIV)

[ ] Sports - being consumed or totally caught up in participating or watching sports; consumed with competition, winning, yourself, or your team or favorite team; finding your worth and value in how well you play a sport or how well your team does instead of how well your life pleases God; having an arrogant attitude when succeeding and an accusatory attitude when losing; focusing all your energy and heart into something other than your walk with God (Matthew 6:21 KJV)

[ ] Jokes - telling jokes that are dirty, degrading, or making fun at someone else’s expense; being involved in talk or conversation that is displeasing to the Lord; being a stumbling block to others by calling attention to sinful things through jokes (Matthew 12:36 NIV)
[ ] Suggestive Movements/Gestures - displaying motions or hand gestures that are offensive or mean in nature; to carry yourself in a negative way; dancing in a way that is distasteful or overly sexual in nature; not Christ-like (Ephesians 5:1-17 NIV)

[ ] No Moderation/Worldly Values - living your life focused on the world and its possessions; living for yourself; going overboard in feeling you must have the best and latest of everything regardless of cost and practicality; sense of security and worth are found in quality and quantity of what you own (Titus 2:6 NAS)

What Now

How often should you go through the Sin List?

I personally use the sin list to check up on my walk with God two or three times a year. My recommendation is to not be legalistic or overly tied to this method. Instead, be sensitive to God’s Spirit calling you to a holy and righteous walk with Christ.

• On The Spot and Daily Confession of Sin

Dealing with sin and shortcomings in your life should be done as soon as they are recognized. Do not wait until your next scheduled time to go through the Sin List to deal with the dirty.

• Forgiving and Forgetting

Many people use the Sin List on a regular basis and should be aware that the Devil would love to keep dredging up all the old sin in your life that has already been forgiven and forsaken. Resist him and stand against the accuser of the brethren. Do not walk back down the lane of already dealt with sins.

It would be a lack of faith in God’s forgiveness to plead for forgiveness and be remorseful for past mistakes over and over again.
• Habitual Sins

If you are having trouble forsaking a sin or situation you may need professional help. What are some of your options?

1. Your Pastor or a local Minister may be able to help.
2. Close Friends or Relatives can often shed some insight.
3. A trained Counselor may be needed to deal with certain areas.

It takes moral courage to forsake and avoid the sins that can so easily entangle you. Never forget:

1. God has given you a way out.
2. No temptation is greater than what you can bear.
3. Christ will forgive you and lead you all the way through.
4. The Holy Spirit lives in you to give you peace and comfort.
5. The church is available to provide encouragement.
6. Christians are ready to walk with you as you follow Christ.

May God bless you as you continue on with Christ. If we can be of assistance to you as you grow in Christ, please feel free to contact us.

You may want to secure a copy of the companion volume of “The Sin List” entitled “The Saint List”. The Saint List deals with an entire study on characteristics and attributes that God wants in every Christian’s life.
One last invitation!

ON THE GO takes you around the world or down the street to reach others with the message of Jesus Christ. By combining the personal touch, social action and a bold presentation of one's testimony and faith in Christ, many lives will be changed eternally. This type of ministry will drive you to your knees and force you to shed tears of compassion and hours of intercession for people's physical and spiritual needs...what a wonderful journey of faith.

You may never have studied at a theological seminary, preached a sermon, sung a solo, or even have spoken another language, but you can be used mightily by the Lord.

Come and join us as we meet immediate physical and emotional needs: taking a life saving vaccine to someone in need, building a mission church, repairing a roof on an orphanage, painting a home for an elderly couple, sharing a hot breakfast with someone, giving away a new pair of shoes to a homeless person, providing teen drug counseling, singing songs at a nursing home, or presenting evangelistic dramas on the streets of a third world country.

With emphasis on short-term evangelistic projects, you can go and share the gospel with people of many different cultures and also receive valuable on the field training in evangelism.

We need people of all ages and talents to combine the personal touch with social action and a bold presentation of one's testimony and faith in Christ so that many lives will be changed eternally. Please, open your heart and hands and help!
